reary Weather Keeps Royalty Away From Hurlingham - Americans on the Defeusive and Weak in Team Work Each Side Has a Victory to Rs Credit.

Special Cable Desputch to THE Street LONDON, June 9.—The second game in the series of international polo matches or the American Challenge cup, the first t which was won by the Americans, was layed at Hurlingham to-day. The Engteam won, scoring six goals to the mericans' one.

The game had been postponed from Saturday on account of rain. The weather to-day was cold and dreary. It had been expected that the King and Queen would watch the play, but their Majesties were not present. The game was begun at he number of spectators. The ground very soft, making the game slower han usual. The turf was cut up considerably and the ball was repeatedly imbedded. On one occasion it was buried so deep that the umpire was obliged to dig it mp Mr. Eustis umpired for the Americans and Capt. Benton for the Englishmen. Capt. Daly was referee. The reconstituted English team was a great improvement, showing rare dash.

The Americans first attacked Bucknaster. Miller, however, got the ball and the combined run just missed the goal post, Freake afterward scoring. The Eng-ishmen continued to press but Waterbury eleverly checked Nickalls and his pony's foot stopped a straight shot by Miller.

In the second period the Americans reattacked, but the Englishmen soon made the running, Keene, however, saving finely. Agassiz then got away, hitting grandly, was stopped by Buckmaster. The Americans came on again and from the scrimmage Waterbury made a goal.

The Americans were still defending in he third period, keeping Waterbury busy. A long drive by Buckmaster nearly scored. Waterbury managed a safety hit. A erimmage ensued again and Waterbury plendidly saved a goal. Then Nickalls just missed the posts, but after a brief reakaway by the Americans Freake scored

The ends were then changed and Cowdin galloped away. Buckmaster stopped and a desperate attack by the Englishmen ended in the Americans making a safety.

Miller slipped from the field and made a fast run, but missed his stroke, the Americans again making a safety. Delays fol-lowed owing to mishaps to Nickalls and Miller. Then Cowdin made a fine run, but the Englishmen were soon reattacking the period concluding with a fine near-side goal by Freake, Waterbury just failing to stop it.

he spectators to some brilliant combination playing and passing, but it was unavailing. After a free hit by Buckmaster for the off side Miller secured the fourth goal for the English team. The period nded by Nickalls hitting behind.

The Americans swept down the ground in the last period, Keene and Cowdin taking the ball along. They apparently had the goal at their mercy, but instead of allowing Agassis, who was on side, to take the ball, Cowdin, who was obviously off side, hit through the goal, which was therefore disllowed. Shortly afterward Cowdin fouled Freake, giving to the Englishmen a free hit, from which Miller goaled. Buckmaster subsequently again scored. But for Waterbury's magnificent back play the Englishmen would have certainly scored several more goals.

EXPERTS MATCHED AT GOLF. line Four Hall Contest at Garden City

By all odds the best four-ball scores ever made on the Garden City Golf Club links marked the friendly match yesterday afternoon, at eighteen holes, between Walter J. Travis, the amateur champion, and Stewart Gardner, the home professional, and the pro-fessionals George Low of Dyker Meadow and Aleck Smith of the Nassau Country Club. Mr. Travis and Gardner won by four up. Their best ball score was sixty-nine, figures never equalled in such a match over a championship course in this country, while Smith and Low recorded a seventy-three. Gardner took three puts on the tenth green, but otherwise his putting was wonderfully good. On the first, fourth, thirteenth and fourteenth holes Gardner ran down long puts and saved a stroke on each. Smith got a four by a well-judged put of five yards on the tenth green and rimmed for threes on the twelfth and slateenth greens, while Low had the same hard lock on the ninth and fourteenth holes. All were on the first green with their seconds, a long put giving Gardner a three and the others getting fours. Smith lost a chance on the second green and had to accept a four, threes being lotted down for the rest. There was half a gale back of the ball to the third and fourth holes. It was Gardner's turn to be the odd man, for a short put that wabbled out made it a five for him, to three fours. Running down from the edge of the fourth green, Gardner got the hole in four, to a trio of fives, so that the hole, neither Smith hor Low getting well on the green with their seconds and needing each a four. This made the visitors three down. Many of the entrants in the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association championship that begins this morning at the Essex County Country Club were out on the links yesterday for practise rounds. They were delighted with the course and the clubhouse, but while some very good scores were made the players were very secretive as to their performances and are evidently keeping matters dark until the real work to-day. Many of the entrants are being entertained by friends at Short Hills, Morristown, Summit and Orange. Additional entries in belated mails yesterday were Miss Grace Ellis, Deal Beach: Miss P. Pitcher, Baltusrol Miss Wallace. Dyker Meadow, and the Misses Yan Boskerck and De V. Herwerden of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club. The start in the eighteen-hole medal play round will be at 10 o'clock, the first sixteen qualifying for the championship. There are thirty-four entries.

this morning, the shells not venturing below the two-mile stake. The 'Varsity four oar was first to make its appearance on the river, followed by the 'Varsity and freshmen eights. There was but one change among the crews. Ferguson going back to his old position at No. 3 in the freshman boat. The 'Varsity eight is rowing a splendid stroke, not going higher than thirty a minute, splashing very little and spacing well. All the oarsmen at Broadview are anxious to get a line on Harvard's crews and eagerly await their coming to-morrow afternoon.

Coach Cameron gave another hour's practice to the three crews at 5 o'clock this afternoon, confining their work to rowing in fours and short stretches. Daly, No. 2, in the 'Varsity boat, is handicapped with a sore heel. He walks about quarters with heavy bandages, but discards them when he enters the shell. While the freshmen were at practice this afternoon Capt. Barnum, at bowin the freshman boat, snapped his oar. The crew was not up to its standard to-day and its ragged rowing was very pronounced. The 'Varsity four oar was made up this afternoon with Lawes and Levering in Ackley and Johnson's positions at Nos. 2 and 3, respectively.

Greek Athlete's Fine Work With the Weights N. Georgantas, a Greek athlete, is credited N. Georgantas, a Greek athlete, is credited with throwing the discus the splendid distance of 123 feet 9 inches, according to the latest batch of European sporting exchanges. The same athlete propelled a shot, it is said, weighing 13 pounds 9 ounces, a distance of 62 feet 6 inches, and these performances are considered exceptional for a countryman of Milo and Fhayllus. The Greeks are responsible for the sport of throwing the discus but at the game they are yet behind the American record which is 125 feet 5 inches.

There is no American record at the particular weight of shot, the nearest being the put of S. R. Grey of 51 feet 55 inches with a 14 pound shot at Travers Island in 1892.

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

When the lateness of the season is taken into consideration, the brokerage reports made public yesterday indicate a well-sustained professional interest in the realty market. Rusiness houses are also apparently finding this a convenient period to look around for new quarters or to enlarge old ones. Besides. the railroad companies who have been buy-ing sites for terminal stations are not yet will therefore probably continue to be on a seasonably large scale for at least some time come, if not throughout the summer.

The Stuyvesant Real Estate Company is reported to have bought, through Douglas Robinson, Charles S. Brown & Co, the six-story elevator apartment house No. 336 West Thirty-third street. It is known as the Berkeley, and is the highest-grade house of its kind on the site of the projected Pennsylva-

Negotiations for the purchase of another important property on the same site have reached a point where big concessions will be necessary if the parcel is to be acquired by private contract. The trustees of the North Presbyterian Church, on the northeast corner of Thirty-first street and Ninth avenue, ask $185,000 for their holding and the brokers for the Stuyvesant Real Estate Company offer $135,000. The property covers half the block front on the avenue between Thirty-first and Thirty-second streets. The other half, consisting of a number of four-story buildings, has already been secured for.

it is said, $155,000 Frederick Lese has bought No. 1591 Madison avenue, between 107th and 108th streets, a five-story flat, on lot 23x100, from Charles B Gumb. Mr. Lese has also bought from ner of Sixty-sixth street and First avenue, a lot 25x100.

J. Clarence Davies & Co. have leased the southwest corner of Third avenue and 149th street for Henry Lewis Morris to Hegeman & Co., the druggists. The property is 30:50 feet. Mr. Morris will erect a four-story building for the lessees. The lesse is for ten years at something over $5,000 per annum. William H.
